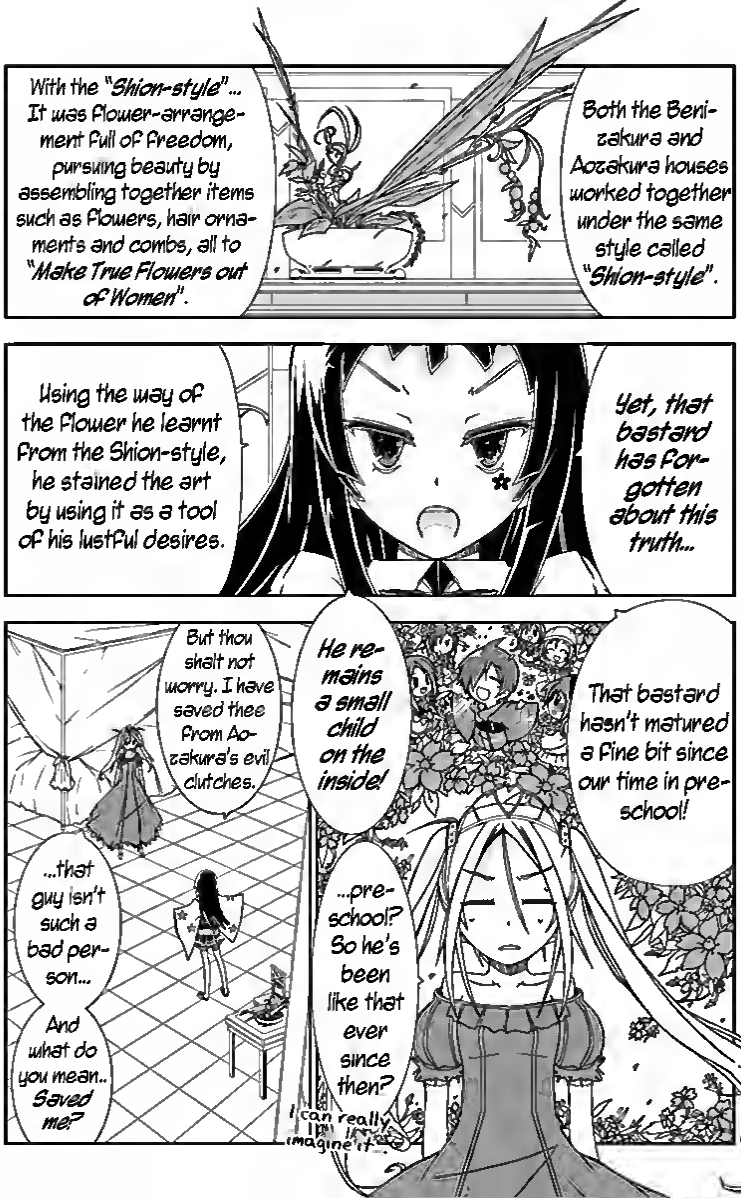
Is my sworn enemy.
Enemy ...?



With the "Shion-style"... It was flower-arrangement full of freedom, pursuing beauty by assembling together items such as flowers, hair ornaments and combs, all to "Make True Flowers out of Women".
Both the Benizakura and Aozakura houses worked together under the same style called "Shion-style".
Using the way of the Flower he learnt from the Shion-style, he stained the art by using it as a tool of his lustful desires.
Yet, that bastard has forgotten about this truth...
